

The „Adriaonline.hu - the sunny site!” travel and lifestyle portal has been launched as a pioneer website on the Hungarian online travel market. Adriaonline.hu - with various accommodation offers in Croatia, Italy, Bulgaria, Montenegro, and Slovenia and with up to date information about these summer destinations - is one of the leading Hungarian travel portals.

Our goal is to provide useful information (up to date weather forecast for the holiday resorts, entertainment and leisure opportunities, etc.) and to offer accommodations at the most popular resorts of the Adriatic region according to the demands of Hungarian travellers. Several of the lodgings are also to book online. Adriaonline.hu is not only a travel portal that contains lodgings and all kinds of useful information, but it is the start page for all Hungarians who are planning a journey to the Adriatic region.

The success of Adriaonline.hu is backed by fact, that daily more than 3.000 unique users visit the website. Adriaonline.hu has on Facebook already more than 10 000 fans, which increases continuously day by day. Our newsletter reaches more than 200.000 travellers monthly.

To be a part of our success, publish your offer at our website and welcome more guests from Hungary. We are in contact with most of the Hungarian travel agencies and they are selling the accommodations of Adriaonline.hu, so our offers reach out to people in all parts of Hungary.

If you own or manage an accommodation or if you are a representative of a region and you would like to make your sales more effective and welcome more Hungarian guests - than we are at your service for a fruitful co-operation.
